

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
1 st Pray for Leah Sharibu , still in captivity 2 years after her kidnapping by Boko Horam. She is being held because she is a Christian. We hear she is alive. We are praying and lobbying the government for her release.	2 nd Pray for protection for all of our team , especially from spiritual attacks. One of our team was hospitalised with some paralysis in his body - a direct demonic attack. I have had many electrical things burn in my house, e.g. my computer charger and battery charger, making life harder☹️	3 rd Pray for the Kings Kids department , as we transfer some staff this week to try and put people where they will work well and the children will be better cared for as a result. Pray especially for Elisha as he is feeling the strain of difficult conversations.	4 th Pray for Rebecca, our Principal , who is struggling with health challenges as a result of stress in her family. Pray for her sister, that she will see wisdom and that she will improve in her health. Rebecca is continuing to do a great job in the school.	5 th Some of our staff will undergo Trauma Healing training today and tomorrow so they can better understand the needs of the children they are caring for. Pray they will be challenged and changed as a result.	6 th This weekend, I am going on a retreat for Missionary women in Miango. There will be around forty of us from different mission organisations. Pray for a time of refreshment and renewal for me.	7 th Gay-Lynn has left for furlough this week for four months. Pray the older girls will not have any challenges while she is away. Pray she will be renewed and refreshed, and enjoy sharing about her work with her supporters.
8 th Pray for us ladies to be spiritually renewed as we take time to intentionally meet with God today. Pray for my knees which are bothering me at the moment .	9 th Pray for our centre in Makurdi . The leader has had to resign due to immoral behaviour and the centre is in need of a lot of help. There are fifty children living there. We need money to fix it up after much neglect. Pray for money to come in.	10 th Today is Miriam Fretheim's birthday . Pray God will bless her today as she is such a great friend and mentor to me. Pray for her as she develops into her member care role.	11 th Our school Home Economics room should be finished this week so we can begin using it after Easter. Pray for the successful completion and all the learning that will take place within.	12 th As a result of transfers, we are looking to appoint a mature couple to come live at Bassa and be able to relate well to the teenage girls. Pray that we are able to find the right people.	13 th Pray for Rejoice Samuel who has had to stop her industrial placement due to bad behaviour! Pray she will mature and realise her mistakes while she is at home.	14 th Pray for our three girls at university, as they cope with the lectures, work and friendships. Pray they will be wise in the way they live, and that they shine for God
15 th Pray for EMS Pastors in the North East of the country as they seek to share the gospel in difficult places. Pray for their protection from Boko Horam and for many M. to come to Christ.	16 th Pray for the girls' home in Bassa , as they struggle with power surges, no electricity to pump water and having to fetch it from our community wells!!! Pray that we will be able to better control the situation.	17 th Pray for Aunty Eli as she manages the various stresses of looking after fifty girls and the hostels. Pray she will see just how much God is using her in their lives. Pray for continued good health for her.	18 th Pray for our Junior second year class , Six girls who are playing up in school a bit! Pray they will keep focussed on their studies and not be lazy and disrespectful to the teachers.	19 th Pray for Fransisca as she is in the final semester of her MA course. She is learning a lot but has a heavy workload. PTL for her attitude and hard work; she is an excellent role model to the girls.	20 th Pray for me as I juggle roles again. As the challenges increase in our Kings Kids, I am increasingly doing a personnel role with the staff, which takes me away from the children and the school... Pray that I will get the balance right	21 st Pray for my lifeskills class on Thursday afternoons . I have the lowest ability girls and it's hard to get the level right for good understanding and memory. Pray they will grow as a result of the classes.
22 nd Pray for our mission community as we drive around. Pray against kidnapping and robbery and for safety on the roads and in our compounds.	23 rd Pray for Alex and the girls as they prepare the land in Bassa for the farming season at the end of April. Pray for our new chickens to grow well and thrive.	24 th Pray for our Basic Education 2 class as they are on their Industrial Placement for a few more weeks before coming back to school. They are doing great and learning a lot.	25 th Pray for teachers as we continue to train them weekly. Pray for Meki, one of our teachers, who is resisting change and the implications that has for us. We need wisdom.	26 th Pray as we advertise for a new Maths teacher and Science teacher , that we may find good quality people with a heart for ministry.	27 th Pray for our team of workers as they plaster the outside of our school before the rains come. The school is high which creates risks on homemade scaffolding... pray for safety.	28 th Pray for Theopholus who is now leading the Makurdi centre. There is a lot of cleansing and re organising to do.
29 th Pray for our faith to remain strong despite the battles. Pray we will live one day at a time in His strength and follow His lead.	30 th Pray for us as we meet to prepare for our joint boys and girls camp at Easter . We haven't done this for a long while, but now we have space, we want to help them learn together in a controlled environment.	31 st Pray for all of our ongoing financial needs to keep all of the children fed and well cared for. Pray I will not get too overwhelmed with the responsibility and Trust God 100% to meet the needs.	Thank You for praying. You are a vital element in my team. ☺️
